Wycliffe Charities Support Hospice of Palm Beach County

LAKE WORTH, FL (May 1, 2007)— Hospice of Palm Beach County is the recipient of a $25,000 donation from the Wycliffe Charities Foundation, Inc. Members presented the check to Hospice of Palm Beach County President and CEO Dave Fielding on April 20. The funds will be used to support Hospice of Palm Beach County's patient care program. "The members of the Wycliffe Charities Foundation have generously supported Hospice of Palm Beach County for more than a decade," said Fielding. "We are more than grateful for their longstanding commitment to our organization," he said.

Wycliffe Charities Foundation board member Howard Kronhaus, Wycliffe Charities Foundation President Marian Rubin, Hospice of Palm Beach County President and CEO Dave Fielding, Wycliffe Charities Foundation board member Bob Nass.

“Hospice of Palm Beach County does wonderful things for so many people,” said Marian Rubin, president of Wycliffe Charities Foundation. “This is our way of giving back,” she said. Since 1996, members and residents of the Lake Worth Community have given over $183,000 to support Hospice of Palm Beach County programs. The donations have supported a variety of Hospice of Palm Beach County services including its pharmacy and Music Therapy program.
